HOW TO PLANT DAHLIA SEED:

Plant in flats three inches deep. Put a full inch of sand in bottom of flat. Pack down well. Cover with one-half inch of good potting soil. Cover seed with a mixture of leaf mould or peat moss and sand, and put a burlap frame over the seed to prevent it drying out. Don't water heavily and don't allow to dry out. Keep flats in a warm, shady place. When 3 or 4 inches high they should be transplanted into flats or pots. Please remember when setting out seedlings, always plant them deeper than they grew in pots.
